Corrosion Association Singapore (CAS), has been set up in Singapore since 1986 and has a very active Committee representing all the different faces of the corrosion prevention industry, from: cathodic protection; coating manufacturers; inspection companies; education and research institutes, and of course the facility owners.

Education about corrosion is one of our prime activities and CAS is planning for a series of corrosion educational courses and regular technical dinner talks in which papers on a topic related to corrosion are presented by an expert who may be resident in Singapore or visiting from overseas. The topic is furthered discussed in an informal manner over a subsidized dinner. These dinner meetings are very popular and well attended by 30-50 members and guests. CAS also has a small library of technical books that can be borrowed by members
